Berlin, July 3, N. S.

ON Thurſday laſt an Expreſs came from M. Brandt, the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter, with an Account, that King Staniſlaus had found Means to eſcape out of Dantzick, in the Night between the 28th and 29th of laſt Month; but ſome Letters of the 30th, which came in this Afternoon, inſinuate as if it was only a Feint, in order to conceal more effectually that Prince. We hear further by the late Letters from Dantzick, that the Adherents of King Staniſlaus in that Town were on the Point of making their Submiſſion, and acknowledging King Auguſtus; and we expect every Moment the News that the Town has done the ſame.

Hague, July 9, N. S. According to the laſt Advices from the Imperial Army upon the Rhine, Prince Eugene was then in Sight of the French Camp, and had begun to connonade the two Bridges which the French have laid over the Rhine, in order to cut off their Communication with the Country on the other Side. Letters from Dantzick of the 29th of laſt Month, bring an Account, that the very Day when the Suſpenſion of Arms was agreed upon for three Days, in order to regulate the Capitulation, the Magiſtrates ſent to Count Munich to inform him, that Count Monti had acquainted them that King Staniſlaus had the Night before made his Eſcape; which Count Munich not believing, he gave the Magiſtrates to underſtand, that if King Staniſlaus (who he ſuppoſed was concealed) was not delivered up to him, together with the Primate, the Count de Monti, and the other Adherents of that King, he would treat the Town with the utmoſt Rigour.
